

Trading Venues	Lead Contact	Current ISDA Definitions default	ISDA Definitions default from 27 November 2021	What Users Can Do To Execute Under 2021s When The Default Is 2006s	Additional Comments
TradeWeb	globalirs@tradeweb.com	2006	2006	Buy-side clients can contact tradeweb directly on europe.clientservices@tradeweb.com (or call +44(0)20 7776 3200) to be switched over to the 2021 Definitions.	Tradeweb introduced a new company-level preference to accommodate the introduction of the 2021 ISDA Interest Rate Derivatives Definitions. The new preference will allow buy-side clients to specify which ISDA Interest Rate Derivatives Definitions (2006 or 2021) will be applied to their trades (both cleared and uncleared), when executed on the Tradeweb trading venue. This will then determine the values specified by Tradeweb in outbound messaging to middleware (MarkitWire), clearinghouses (CCPs), Order Management Systems (OMS), liquidity providers and so on, in terms of the relevant ISDA Interest Rate Derivatives Definitions applicable to the trade. Tradeweb welcomes feedback from the buy-side on readiness for default change to the 2021 Definitions.
