Part I. Representations and Agreements.

2.1. Each party represents to the other party (which representation is deemed repeated as of the time of each SBS Transaction Event) that, as of the date of each SBS Transaction Event, (i) all SBS Supplement I Information (excluding financial information and representations) furnished by or on behalf of it to the other party is true, accurate and complete in every material respect, (ii) no representation provided in the SBS Supplement I Information or in this SBS Supplement I is incorrect or misleading in any material respect, and (iii) all SBS Supplement I Information that is financial information furnished by or on behalf of it to the other party has been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, consistently applied.2

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party agrees that an event of default, termination event, or other similar event shall not occur under the Agreement or any other contract between the parties solely on the basis of (i) a representation provided solely in SBS Supplement I Information or in this SBS Supplement I being incorrect or misleading in any material respect, or (ii) a breach of any covenant or agreement set forth solely in this SBS Supplement I; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 2.2 shall prejudice any other right or remedy of a party at law or under the Agreement or any other contract in respect of any misrepresentation or breach hereunder or thereunder. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 2.2 shall not alter a party’s termination rights or remedies, if any, applicable to a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement that is not provided or set forth solely in SBS Supplement I Information or in this

2 SEC Rule 15Fh-1(b).
SBS Supplement I, including any such breach relating to any event or condition that could also cause or constitute an event specified in (i) or (ii) above.

2.3. Each party agrees to promptly notify the other party in writing in accordance with the Notice Procedures (i) of any material change to SBS Supplement I Information (other than representations) previously provided by such party or on behalf of such party and (ii) if any representations made in SBS Supplement I Information or this SBS Supplement I by or on behalf of such party become incorrect or misleading in any material respect. For any representation that would be incorrect or misleading in any material respect if repeated on any date following the date on which the representation was last repeated, the notifying party shall timely amend such representation by giving notice of such amendment to the other party in accordance with the Notice Procedures. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement to the contrary, a notification pursuant to this Section 2.3 shall be effective on the Notice Effective Date and the relevant information or representation will be deemed amended as of such Notice Effective Date.³

2.4. Each party agrees to promptly provide the other party, in accordance with the Notice Procedures, any information reasonably requested by such other party to enable such other party to comply with Title VII of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the SBS Supplement I Rules in connection with any SBS outstanding between the parties under the Agreement.⁴

2.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement or in any nondisclosure, confidentiality or similar agreement between the parties, each party hereby consents to the disclosure of information about such party or its activities to the extent required by the SBS Supplement I Rules to comply with any order, directive or other request or inspection of the SEC, a self-regulatory organization or a security-based swap execution facility regarding Covered SBS Entity’s books and records.⁵

Each party acknowledges that disclosures made pursuant to this Section 2.5 may include, without limitation, the disclosure of trade information including a party’s identity (by name, identifier or otherwise) to SBSDRs, security-based swap execution facilities, relevant regulators and any self-regulatory organizations of which a party is a member and that such disclosures could result in certain anonymous SBS transaction and pricing data becoming available to the public. Each party further acknowledges that, solely for the purposes of complying with the regulatory reporting obligations discussed above, a Reporting Counterparty and/or SBSDR may engage the services of affiliates and/or third-party service providers provided that the Reporting Counterparty shall be responsible for ensuring that any information about the other party or its activities that the Reporting Counterparty provides to an affiliate hereunder that is not otherwise available to such affiliate will be used by the affiliate solely to facilitate compliance with the relevant reporting obligations. Each party also acknowledges that disclosures made pursuant to this paragraph may be made to recipients in a jurisdiction other than that of either party or a jurisdiction that may not necessarily provide an equivalent level of protection for personal data as either party’s home jurisdiction. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) to the extent that applicable non-disclosure, confidentiality, bank secrecy, data privacy or other law imposes non-disclosure requirements on transaction and similar information required or permitted to be disclosed as contemplated herein but permits a party to waive such requirements by consent, the consent and acknowledgements provided herein shall be a consent by each party for purposes of such law; (ii) any agreement between the parties to maintain confidentiality of information contained in the Agreement or in any non-disclosure, confidentiality or other agreement shall continue to apply to the extent that such agreement is not inconsistent with the disclosure of information in connection with the SBS Supplement I Rules as set out herein; and (iii) nothing herein is intended to limit the scope of any other consent to disclosure separately given by each party to the other party.
